FROM THE PRESIDENT

Starting Anew

On a table in my house sits a small pile of books. These three books are paperbacks with yellowed pages and underlinings and notes in the margins. These are my favorite books from high school - the poems of Emily Dickinson and Robert Frost and the sonnets of Edna St. Vincent Millay. I rarely read them or even open them anymore, but for more years than I like to admit, they have traveled with me wherever I have moved and sit together in a pile wherever I land. They remind me that there are many ways to describe the world that I see, and that there are people who do that much better than I do. When I first read them, the authors' perspectives and gift with words opened up a new world to me. I still remember that feeling of awe. And probably just as important to me now is that they remind me of who I was at 17 - my hopes and dreams and struggles and mainly my optimism.

This is my favorite time of year at Compass. Appropriately, it's almost springtime, when things begin anew. For us, our next program year starts with the opening of our 2018-19 nonprofit application in April. Even as the current consulting projects are still in high gear with final presentations at least two months away, we in the office are looking ahead to next year. This is the time when we get to really talk to nonprofits. It's not required, but many nonprofits take advantage of our offer to talk about project ideas before they submit an application. We offer five services and require nonprofits to select just one. What we hear from many nonprofits is that they need more than one. That's why the calls are so interesting. We get to hear about the issues, challenges and opportunities facing each nonprofit. Often, our outside perspective can shed light on the best first project, or for some repeat clients, the best next Compass project.

Our priority at Compass is to provide support to nonprofits that will help them positively impact our local community. That means strong boards, diversified funding, and a clear strategy. In addition, we offer marketing projects and support for partnerships and collaborations. Compass projects can do the following and more:

- Assess an earned income venture
- Write a business plan for a new program
- Help boards understand how to be most effective
- Evaluate an innovative idea
- Consider expanding into a new market
- Improve communication to support fundraising

Along the way, much more happens with the Compass team of talented business professionals at the side and on the side of the nonprofits. Many nonprofits ask Compass team members to join their board at the end of the project. Many Executive Directors appreciate having an advocate in their Project Leader. Most love getting all of this for free!

When the Compass project is finished, nonprofits have a plan to go back year after year to guide their organization. For many, the Compass plan will reflect their hopes and dreams and struggles and optimism. We'd like to help nonprofits get where they want to be. We're happy to talk about a possible project. Give us a call.

Happy Spring!

WE COULDN'T DO IT WITHOUT

We couldn't put together our talented consulting teams without skilled volunteers. We couldn't recruit the amazing volunteers without the support of the local business school clubs. Thank you to the following alumni clubs that help spread the word about Compass. We are grateful for their support:

- Haas School of Business at the University of California at Berkeley
- The University of Chicago Booth School of Business
- Columbia Business School
- Johnson Graduate School of Management at Cornell
This year, Compass is connecting over 70 business professionals with nine nonprofit organizations through our pro bono consulting projects in Chicago. Like our nonprofit clients, Compass is a nonprofit that relies on contributions to ensure we can continue bringing business talent to the nonprofit sector to help individual nonprofits.

Every $1 donated to Compass provides $9 of consulting services back to local nonprofits. Compass doesn't charge nonprofits for services, so we rely on funding from generous supporters. If you haven't donated to Compass during this 2017-18 project year, please donate now.
