FROM THE NATIONAL BOARD CHAIR

A Pleasure to Be Back

This January, I became Chair of the Compass National Board. As a past project leader, DC Board member and Chair, and current project volunteer, it is great to be back working with colleagues on the board with a front seat to the community impact Compass employees and our volunteers have in Chicago, Greater Philadelphia, Greater Washington, and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

I'm not the only one who is "back" at Compass. Four of Compass' founders from 2001 are back serving on the National Board. Friends and colleagues have been curious about why my support and engagement with Compass has endured after my first project experience in 2002. I engage with Compass because I care deeply about inspiring the business community to donate not only their treasure but also their time and skills to advance our local nonprofit organizations. Compass nonprofit clients serve our communities to make our cities thrive – making them a great place to live and work for all.

COMPASS IN THE TWIN CITIES

Compass launched five pro bono strategic consulting projects for nonprofits in Minneapolis-St. Paul. Our work is ranging in issue areas and service lines, including Board Development for The Cedar Cultural Center; Strategic Alignment for Code Savvy; Decision Support for Girls on the Run Minnesota; Strategic Marketing for Latino Economic Development Center; and Strategic Marketing for YWCA Minneapolis. We're so proud to be here, supporting nonprofits with our talented and experienced Compass teams of volunteer business professionals.

One of our new clients said, "The team's ideas are boundless, and they continue to provide insights and tools that will be valuable to our organization post project completion."

Because of our warm welcome in the Twin-Cities, we'll be selecting more clients for pro bono consulting to aid them in their important social impact missions. Want to know how you can get involved as a nonprofit or volunteer? Contact Lisa Gaffney at lgaffney@compassdc.org.
